

York's Food Delivery Teams

- For students of York Schools, the daily pick up sites are the Police Department and the Public Library. Contact: Whitney Thornton, Food and Nutrition Director at 207-363-5554. Pick up is between 11-12pm.

The York Police Department is located at 9 Hannaford Drive.
The York Public Library is located at 15 Long Sands Road.

- Beginning on Monday, March 16th, the Center for Active Living will switch, on a trial basis, to take out meals only, Monday – Friday. Lunch menu may be altered slightly. Reservation required. To make a reservation, you must call the day prior between 9-11am and 1-3pm; call 207-363-1036. Apart from this meal program, the Center will be closed to the public until further notice. Note: The Hannaford food program, in conjunction with the Good Shepherd Food Bank, will operate as planned on Monday, March 16th.
- In order to assist folks with self-quarantine measures, a no-touch food delivery service will be provided for the York community. This service is being provided through a collaborative effort by the York Housing Association, the York Community Service Association (YCSA), the Center for Active Living, First Parish Church, Town Employees, and numerous volunteers. When you order and pay for your food/supplies online from Hannafords, a volunteer will drive them to your house.
- For additional food-related assistance, food delivery, or you are experiencing economic hardship during this self-quarantine period, please email jsweeney@ycsame.org or call 207- 363-5504 ext.2 for support.
- If you have a fever, cough, or difficulty breathing, please contact your health care provider.
- For more information on Maine's response to COVID-19 and updated testing results, visit the Maine CDC website. Additionally, Maine CDC and 211 Maine have launched a new option for Mainers to get answers to questions about COVID-19 at any time. This service is available by dialing 211 (or 1-866-811-5695), texting your ZIP code to 898-211, or emailing info@211maine.org.
